(Toronto, September 20, 2021) – The Chelsea Hotel, Toronto is pleased to announce the appointment of Executive Chef Gaurav Kapoor. Promoted from Executive Sous Chef, Kapoor has been with the hotel since July 2010. His creative approach and passion for the culinary industry are clearly evident.

“We’re excited to promote GK to executive chef, where he will continue his craft and lead the culinary team to delight our guests,” says Rob Housez, general manager, Chelsea Hotel, Toronto.

Growing up in the heart of India, Kapoor’s mom and grandmother passed along the craft of grinding together traditional aromatics and spices that had been the base of family recipes for generations. Kapoor began his culinary journey in Bangalore, India where he earned his diploma in Hotel Management and Culinary Technology. Following this education, he was selected as one of 20 to participate in the prestigious Taj Hotel’s management training program. His experience includes many five star hotel brands such as, Radisson, Grand New Delhi and Hotel Le Meridian. Eventually, Canada called and Kapoor ventured across the ocean to continue his culinary odyssey in one of the world’s most multicultural cities – Toronto. Now, as Executive Chef at Canada’s largest hotel, Kapoor is leading his own brigade.

“My philosophy about food includes cooking with love and serving with kindness. It is my hope that through this path, we’ve created lasting memories for our guests,” says Gaurav Kapoor, executive chef.

Executive Chef Kapoor will oversee the culinary hubs of the hotel – Market Garden and T|bar, ensuring that fresh local ingredients are all part of the menu planning.
